OUR HISTORY

In the lush expanse of Assam, amidst the rolling hills and fertile plains, the story of Saman Tea Private Limited began in the year 1918. It was a time when the fragrance of tea leaves carried the whispers of opportunity, and our forefathers seized the moment, becoming pioneers in a venture that would shape generations to come.

Born out of a vision to embrace the legacy of tea, our founders were among the first few Indians to acquire plantations that once stood proudly under British ownership. With dedication and determination, they breathed new life into these estates, commencing a journey into the artistry of tea cultivation and production.

From those early days, our family's commitment to tea has been unwavering. Passed down through the hands of each succeeding generation, the business has become a living testament to the love and passion that brews in our veins. Today, as we proudly stand as the 4th Generation at the helm, Saman Tea Private Limited remains a true family affair – a testament to the enduring spirit of kinship and shared purpose.

Our story is not just one of business; it is a narrative interwoven with the very fabric of our existence. Nurtured by tea, it flows through our roots, shaping our identity and defining our purpose. The tea leaves that dance in the breeze on our estates are not just a crop; they are a legacy, a tradition, and a way of life.

In an ever-changing world, Saman Tea continues to thrive as a family-run enterprise, where each member is an integral part of our shared journey. As we continue to uphold the values instilled by our forefathers, we invite you to join us in savoring the richness of tradition, the warmth of family, and the essence of tea that courses through our history. Welcome to the story of Saman Tea Private Limited – where every chapter is steeped in heritage, and every sip is a sip of ourl legacy.

OUR FACIITIES

Saman Tea Private Limited is proud to operate state-of-the-art facilities in both North and South India, strategically located to cater to the diverse preferences of our customers. Our commitment to providing the finest teas is complemented by our cutting-edge facilities that uphold the highest standards in the industry.

North India Facility - Kolkata, India:
Nestled in the heart of Kolkata, our North India facility serves as a hub for tea excellence. Spanning over 30,000 square feet, this facility is equipped with modern technology and state-of-the-art storage capabilities. ISO and HACCP certified, we adhere to the best industry practices to ensure the quality and safety of our teas. Here, our tea bag machines, pouch packing machines, and blending drum work in harmony to craft the perfect blend, meeting the discerning expectations of our customers.

South India Facility - Coimbatore, India:
Our South India facility, located in Coimbatore, mirrors the sophistication and dedication seen in our North India facility. With a footprint of over 50,000 square feet, this facility boasts cutting-edge storage facilities as well and adheres to the same rigorous standards. ISO and HACCP certified, it reflects our unwavering commitment to quality.

Both facilities stand as pillars of Saman Tea's commitment to excellence, innovation, and customer satisfaction. Our relentless pursuit of quality is reflected not just in the tea we produce but also in the facilities that house the artistry of tea-making. Join us as we blend tradition with technology, creating teas that resonate with the spirit of Saman Tea.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY

At Saman Tea Private Limited, we recognize that our responsibility extends beyond producing exceptional teas to caring for the very hands that cultivate and blend our products. Our commitment to social responsibility is embedded in every aspect of our operations, from the tea estates to our blending facilities.

Caring for Our Workers:
We believe in the well-being of our workers, who are the backbone of our company. Those at our blending facilities and tea estates are provided with more than just employment; they are offered a holistic support system. Free housing, cooking fuel, footwear, protective clothing, winter blankets, and basic medical treatment are provided without any cost to our dedicated workforce.

Fair Wages and Additional Support:
Recognizing the value of their hard work, we ensure that our workers are paid fair wages. In addition to this, rations are provided at a subsidized price, and through our Infant Nutrition Program, free milk powder is distributed, contributing to the well-being of young families.

Education and Growth:*
We go beyond employment by providing free primary school education, fostering a culture of learning and growth. We believe in investing in the education of our workers' children, paving the way for a brighter future.

Retirement Benefits:
Understanding the importance of a secure future, we provide pension funds, provident funds, and other retirement benefits to our workers. This ensures that they retire with dignity and financial security, acknowledging their integral role in the success of Saman Tea.

Our responsibility goes beyond the cup; it extends to the communities and individuals who contribute to the journey of Saman Tea. As we cultivate quality teas, we nurture lives and futures, embodying a commitment to social and ethical practices that resonate with the values we hold dear. Join us in sipping the spirit of responsibility, one cup at a time.
